Ellison's. CHRISTMAS BARGAINS.

POWELL OUT ON BOND.

W. J. Powell, who was arrested last week at Mayfield by the United States marshal on the charge of sending obscene matter through Uncle Sam's mail, gave bond Saturday and went to his home near Water Valley. Porter H. Weeks, of Fulton, went on the bond, which was placed at $1,500.

Sometime during the campaign the "Liberty League," of Louisville, sent him some campaign literature and Powell is said to have covered it with insults and sent it back to the league.

The penalty is a heavy fine or imprisonment.

ANOTHER FULTON FIRE.

Tuesday morning last the South Fulton Roller Mill was totally destroyed by fire. The value of the plant, machinery and contents, said to be $25,000, and was insured for $11,200. The proprietors of the mill, Robertson & Wilson, think it was set on fire, and the Leader says that evidences of an incendiary was discovered at Brann's mill, Sunday night. The indications are that there are "fire-bugs" about Fulton, who want to loot and rob.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

A special to the Louisville Times from Fulton, says:
"Much pressure is being put on Col. Mott Ayres, editor of the Fulton Daily Leader to offer himself for representative or Fulton and Hickman counties. By reason of his active party service and aggressive management in the recent campaign he is being urged to make the race.

Mr. Ayres is a man of ability and sprightliness, the acknowledged leader of the young Democracy, in close touch with the majority sentiment of his party, and no doubt would have a walk over for the nomination and election, if he desires the position.

MARRIED AT UNION CITY.

There was a double wedding in the Palace Hotel at Union City, Sunday of last week, the contracting parties being J. B. Dupoyator and Miss Annie Jennings, C. W. White and Miss Amanda Powell, all of Wickliffe, Ky. The ceremony was performed by Eld. T. A. Reynolds.

Miss Powell is quite well known in Hickman, having been here on a visit only a few weeks ago. She is a daughter of Mr. G. W. Powell, who formerly lived in Hickman.

SUES RAILROAD COMPANY.

Mrs. Tennie Blythe has filed suit through her attorney, Hon. Dick Tyler, of Hickman, against the Illinois Central railroad company, for the death of her husband, John T. Blythe.

It will be remembered that Mr. Blythe in company with High Tendall, was crossing the Illinois Central tracks near Joe Wade's store when both were struck by an incoming train and instantly killed. The suit was brought in the federal court and will be tried at Paducah the next term.

Mrs. Tendall is also preparing to bring suit for a similar amount for the loss of her husband, if a compromise, which is under consideration, is not effected before the term of court begins.—Fulton Leader.

MOULDING CONTEST.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the season was the "Moulding Contest," given Tuesday evening by Miss Lizzie Luttrell in honor of her cousins, Miss Margaret King, of Sturgis, Ky., and Mrs. Maud Cook of Corydon, Ky. The parlor was tastefully decorated with holly and mistletoe and many were the vain (?) efforts on the part of the gentlemen to collect the forfeits from the ladies who accidentally (?) placed themselves under the mistletoe. Each guest was given a large stick of chewing gum and a card bearing the name of some animal. They were required to chew the gum and mould from it the animal whose name was on the card, within eight minutes. Miss Nannie Rogers was awarded the first prize and Mr. J. W. Morris the booby prize.

The guests then repaired to the dining room which was also decorated with evergreens, where refreshments were daintily served.

The gentlemen were then required to make love to each young lady, and just before the guests dispersed, the ladies decided by a vote that Messrs. Travis and Dillon were the most ardent lovers present. Those present were:

Miss Nellie Helm, and Alvin Young.
Miss Jessie Isler and John Dillon.
Miss Ivey DeBow, and Lee Kirkpatrick.
Miss Leone Poqua and Chas. Baltzer.
Miss Leola Barry and J. W. Morris.
Miss Nannie Rogers and Leon Smith.
Miss Mary Helm and Mit Shaw.
Miss Margaret King and Will Helm.
Mrs. Maud Cook and Chas. Travis.
Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Luten.
Floater—Messrs. R. L. Bradley and Henry Davis.
